

Give homeless dogs, cats, kittens and puppies a meal to remember this Thanksgiving.

There are so many homeless and hungry dogs and cats that need your help this holiday season. Alone and abandoned, they look for hope... hope that someone will give them the love they need.

You can give back this Thanksgiving by helping feed these deserving animals. Buy a meal ticket to feed a dog or cat and show them that they are not alone.

Introducing Pet Tips & Resources from Bideawee

Cookin' With Robbie Dawg: Thanksgiving is just days away and that means just one thing: leftovers! Lisa Fortunato of Robbie Dawg gives tips for adapting your traditional recipes for dog-friendly left-overs. Also: a recipe for Pumpkin Pie Dog Biscuits. Featured Holiday Pet Tip: Visitors may not be aware of your pet's dietary needs or restrictions. Inform your guests what is appropriate. Food left on low lying tables and children's hands can often be the victim of food snatching by your conniving canine. For more holiday pet tips, click here.

Featured Winter Weather Pet Tip: Outdoor cats may seek the inside of your car engine to keep warm. Bang on the hood to scare away any stowaways that may have taken shelter from the storm. For more winter pet tips, click here.

Bideawee's Book of the Month: "Most of my Patients Wear Fur: Tales of Small Animals and Their Big City Vet" by Dr. Elizabeth Cohen

In "Most of my Patients Wear Fur: Tales of Small Animals and Their Big City Vet," Dr. Cohen shares her expertise, as well as some humorous, touching, and educational anecdotes from her twenty-plus years as a veterinarian.

Time is running out to take advantage of the Pension Protection Act of 2006.

The Pension Protection Act of August, 2006 allows taxpayers to donate money to qualified charitable organizations directly from their traditional Roth IRA account. Distributions are tax-free and early withdrawal penalties are avoided.

This tax benefit is only available until December 2007.
