New York, NY- 5/29/2008- Bideawee, one of the nation's oldest humane organizations has appointed Nancy Taylor to serve as it's new President and Chief Executive Officer. Nancy will be starting her new position at Bideawee on June 9, 2008. Nancy's career includes high level management positions with several non-profits and for profit corporations. Prior to accepting the position at Bideawee, Nancy was Chief Executive Officer for the Tuberous Sclerosis Alliance in Silver Spring, Maryland. Prior to that position, she was Vice President of Global Alliance and Market Development for Transgenomic Inc., a global biotechnology company headquartered in Omaha, Nebraska.

"We are very pleased that Nancy Taylor will be joining us in this critical leadership role. Her extensive background in both corporate and non-profit organizational leadership is of great importance to our organization. Bideawee is in the midst of expanding its services and programs. I am confident that Nancy will successfully lead Bideawee through it's expanded marketing initiatives, fundraising programs and pet adoption goals," said William A. Dueker, Jr., Chairman of the Board of Directors of Bideawee.

"I am very excited to accept a leadership role at this wonderful organization during such an important time in its long and successful history," said Ms. Taylor. "I look forward to working with the team at Bideawee to develop new programs and fundraising initiatives while maintaining the excellent tradition of finding homes and providing care for thousands of dogs and cats, puppies and kittens".

About Bideawee

Founded in 1903 by Mrs. Flora D'Auby Jenkins Kibbe, Bideawee, which means "stay a while" in Scottish, is one of the oldest humane organizations in the United States. Bideawee's three locations in New York, Wantagh, and Westhampton are home to approximately 250 to 300 animals at any time and place thousands of dogs, cats, puppies and kittens in loving homes every year. The organization operates two full service veterinary practices in Manhattan and Westhampton and is also home to two of the oldest and largest Pet Memorial Parks in the country located in Wantagh and Westhampton, NY.

Bideawee's Learning Centers in all three locations provide a wide range of educational programs and fun activities that help strengthen the bond between people and pets. Our mission is to promote and support safe, loving, long-term relationships between people and companion animals by providing a continuum of services and programs that are innovative, personalized and of high quality.

Bideawee is a not-for-profit 501 (c) 3 humane organization and 100 % of Bideawee's funding comes from private sources. For more information, please visit www.bideawee.org <<http://www.bideawee.org>> .
