Furnished Quarters and Bideawee Team up for Pet Adoption Event at Grove St. PATH in Jersey City April 27

EVENT: Bideawee, one of New York City's leading animal welfare organizations, will partner with Furnished Quarters, the leading provider of temporary furnished apartments in the Northeastern United States, to hold a pet adoption event at the Grove St. PATH Station in Jersey City on Thursday, April 27th from 4-7pm. Adorable dogs and cats of all ages and sizes will be available for adoption and looking for their forever homes. There will also be giveaways for both pets and people at this special community event.

WHERE: Entrance to the Grove PATH Station (PATH Plaza), just steps from the Furnished Quarters residences at the Grove Pointe and Marbella apartment buildings in Jersey City, NJ.

WHEN: Bideawee's Mobile Adoption Van will be at the PATH station from 4-7pm on April 27th.

FROM BIDEAWEE: "Identifying great families for our pets is so important and we rely on adoption events to get the word out and find our rescue animals good homes," said Dolores Swirin-Yao, President/CEO of Bideawee. "We thank Furnished Quarters for their support and assistance with our upcoming adoption event. They clearly share our enthusiasm for rescuing animals!"

FROM FURNISHED QUARTERS: "We have a company-wide appreciation for animals, inviting our guests to bring their beloved dogs and cats with them when they stay at our locations," said Steve Brown, CEO of Furnished Quarters. "That's why we are honored to work with Bideawee to help find welcoming homes for these pets with our guests and neighbors."

ABOUT FURNISHED QUARTERS: Furnished Quarters provides stylish, fully equipped temporary furnished apartments, both nationally and globally. The company, established in 1998 in New York City by brothers Steven and Gary Brown, is the largest independently owned and operated supplier of short-term housing in the Northeastern United States, with a focus on New York City and Boston. Corporate clients have one-call access to over 40,000 furnished rentals worldwide that are sourced, vetted and managed by Furnished Quarters' Global Solutions Center. Additionally, the company's Q&A Residential Hotel in Lower Manhattan offers hotel-style stays in full-sized apartments. Pets are welcome in most Furnished Quarters apartments, and at Q&A Hotel.
